

PROFESSOR ALEXANDER ODONGA

- Famous Surgeon and Professor of medicine.
- Graduated in 1948
- Throughout his career, his belief has been that a true doctor is one for whom medicine is a true calling and is dedicated to relieving human suffering.
- He has also observed that the malaise as a black race is that we do not value time (even while sporting expensive watches), that we seldom plan what we do and that we do not have a culture of maintaining infrastructure.
- Very articulate and informed on many subjects eg. Chics. Music, art, politics and religion.
- He is credited for a number of Publications in Medicine including: “The first fifty years of Makerere Medical School”.
- His latest contribution has been writing the Luo- English Dictionary Published in 2005.